

Coram Room Hire Overview

A fascinating heritage that spans more than 275 years

We were established by Thomas Coram as the Foundling Hospital, London's first home for babies whose mothers were unable to care for them. Today, as the children's charity Coram, our historic campus near London's Russell Square provides an exceptional setting for all your meetings, interviews, training and corporate events.

Our pioneering work in adoption, early years and parenting from our original London site allows us to continue Thomas Coram's legacy by creating better chances for thousands of children across the UK.

Meeting Rooms

Versatile space, flooded with natural daylight

With great views across our historic Campus, our five meeting rooms are suitable for a range of events, and can accommodate from 5–100 delegates.
