

Engraved for of London Magazine 1749.

coram | better chances
for children
since 1739

Join Coram in celebrating 275 years of supporting children.

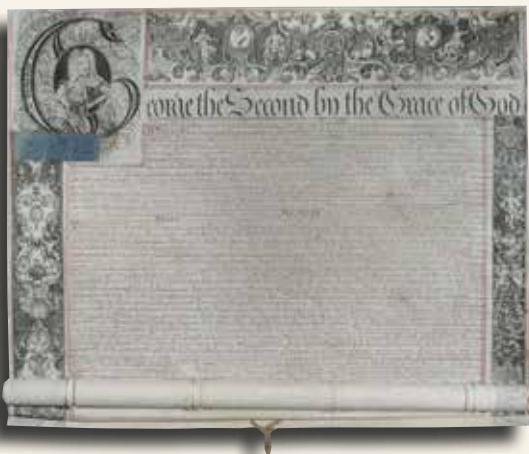

October 17 2014 marks 275 years since
Thomas Coram was granted a
Royal Charter by King George II to establish the Foundling Hospital.

Continuing today as Coram, we continue to support children from our same historic site in Brunswick Square.

See overleaf for ways you can mark our anniversary with us.

Join us as we celebrate our Royal Charter Day

Listen to Thomas Coram's playlist

What music might have inspired Thomas Coram as he travelled as a sailor and sought support for his Foundling Hospital? Click on the YouTube icon on www.coram.org.uk from Monday 13th October.

Walk around Coram's London – with gingerbread!

See and hear about the sights and characters of Coram's London on two guided commemorative walks.

Tuesday 14th October and Friday 17th October 12.30pm-1.30pm

Register your interest at www.coram.org.uk/events

Bake in our 18th Century Bake Off!

Join us in baking a cake, biscuit, flan or pudding from the Georgian period and enter our online competition.

Further information and recipes will be available on our website,

Twitter @Coram and Facebook from Monday 6th October.

Watch a surprise illumination!

We have exciting plans to unveil a dazzling illumination on the anniversary of our Charter Day at our Campus in Brunswick Square on Friday 17th October.

Further details will be posted on www.coram.org.uk nearer the time.

Sign up for regular email updates tinyurl.com/coramnews